We strongly protest against Farzad Kamangar's death sentence because we believe that this kind of punishment, regardless of the charge, is inhuman and must be abolished. We appeal the Iranian government to:

- review the case of Farzad Kamangar and to provide the citizens and the world public opinion with further clarification about the charges against him and other teacher trade unionists currently detained;
- commute Farzad's death sentence;
- desist from the use of torture, which does not befit a democratic and civilized country;
- allow Farzad Kamangar to have unimpeded contact with his family and his lawyer;

- stop the harassment against the relatives of Farzad Kamangar and members of the Committee to Stop Farzad Kamangar's Death Sentence;
- be open for a peaceful dialogue regarding the professional concerns of teachers in Iran.
